Dear Student:

Thank you for your interest in our compiler. We would be willing to give you access to a one-time download of the newest version of a free command-line compiler or an IDE compiler (at a reduced rate) if you are willing to do one of the following:

❏   Send a copy of the code you compiled for us to use as an example program.
❏   Mention us in a Senior Thesis or written project for computer engineering.
❏   Review our manual for constructive criticism.
❏   Do a compiler comparison to another C compiler (if you have another one).

We request the option chosen be completed within one (1) year of receiving the compiler. We will also need a copy of your student I.D. be emailed, faxed (262-797-0459) or sent in to us (we give this special option to students only). Please include which chip you are planning to use, your full mailing address, email address and phone number.

Please feel free to contact us with questions or concerns. Otherwise we will await a copy of your student I.D., information requested and which option you would be willing to fulfill. Thank you again for your interest.

Sincerely,

CCS, Inc.
